YOUR LAST CHANCE.

Recently we published in these columns an offer of The Youth's Companion and McCall's Magazine, both for a full year, for only $2.10, including a McCall Dress Pattern. The high price of paper and ink has obliged McCall's Magazine to raise their subscription price February 1 to 10 cents a copy and 75 cents a year—so that the offer at the above price must be withdrawn.

Until March 31 our readers have the privilege of ordering both publications for a full year, including the choice of any 15-cent McCall Dress Pattern, for only $2.10.

The amount of reading, information and entertainment contained in the fifty-two issues of The Youth's Companion and the value of twelve monthly fashion numbers of McCall's at $2.10 offer a real bargain to every reader of this paper.

This two-at-one-price offer includes:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues.
2. The Companion Home Calendar for 1917.
3. McCall's Magazine—12 fashion numbers.
4. One 15-cent McCall Pattern—your choice from your first copy of McCall's—if you send a 2-cent stamp with your selection.

Unprofitable Investment.

Luke McLuke says lots of girls marry for revenue only. So do lots of men, but marriage for revenue produces few dividends—only about enough for divorce fees and court costs.—Houston Post.

Whole Story in a Word.

The following note, says the British Farm and Home, containing only one word, was recently handed to a village schoolmaster: "Cepatomtebatatur-ing." It was brought by one of the boys on behalf of a neighbor's child who was absent. The schoolmaster eventually arrived at a solution—"Kept at home to go a-tatur-ing!"
